How LAW ROACH Is Changing the Conversation

WHERE TO TRAVEL THIS FALL BASED ON YOUR ZODIAC SIGN

BROUGHT TO YOU BY SEVERE WANDERLUST.

For most, vacation is sacred. It's designated time to step away from life's everyday stressors and focus on the things that resonate most with our sense of calm and satisfaction. However, what's one man's ideal vacation is another's worst case scenario, making the process of picking a well-suited travel destination all the more complicated. The solution? Zodiac-inspired travel, obviously.

We tapped Astrologer Alice Bell to lend her expertise on travel characteristics each sign should prioritize. Her insights range from choosing to adventure all alone to picking cities that offer heritage and history (with a little food and wine thrown in for good measure).. In any event, continue ahead for your guide on where to travel this fall and beyond based on your sign.

A hallmark of Aquarius travel style is independence. "Aquarius goes against the grain and usually does their own thing when it comes to vacation," Bell says. "They like to have a lot of freedom so they may like taking solo trips every now and then." And because Aquarius is an air sign, they're thirst for knowledge comes into play. "They like to be the first people to discover a new place so that they can come back and tell everyone about it," she says. "They also like to learn new information and keep their minds occupied. So, anywhere they can visit sites and learn."

AQUARIUS

(JANUARY 20 - FEBRUARY 18)

WHERE TO TRAVEL:

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

This Danish city is a no-brainer for independent travelers like Aquarius. The destination offers a balanced mix of history, cuisine, architecture, and green living. Coco Hotel is a new boutique property dreamt up with elegant minimalism in mind (think custom furniture and woodwork made with local artisans and unique art in every room) and is known for its ambitious sustainability initiatives. Aquarius will be able to fill their itinerary with must-see stops like the historic maritime Christianshavn area, UNESCO World Heritage site Kronborg castle, and a stroll around Hans Christian Andersen's iconic haunts. Also worth noting, Copenhagen is best explored by bicycle, so be sure to locate rental locations and enticing routes.
