THE 7 BEST BOUTIQUE HOTELS IN COPENHAGEN

From picturesque apartments in historic buildings to small hideaways, these boutique hotels guarantee a memorable stay in the Danish capital

While Copenhagen is celebrated for its ambience and interior design, finding a hotel that meets certain aesthetic criteria can be quite overwhelming. Are you looking for breathtaking architecture just a stone's throw from the city centre or an abundant residence with that certain Grand Dame feeling? A lavish healthy breakfast or a quiet cocktail in a leafy garden? We've got the most fashionable places to stay in Copenhagen covered.

Below, an effortless guide to the most stylish boutique hotels as tried and tested by the Vogue Scandinavia team.

COCO HOTEL

With its impeccable interior design and the ideal location in the heart of buzzing Vesterbro, Coco Hotel offers a modern stay.

The 4-star sustainable boutique hotel mixes modern Danish aesthetics with a Parisian vintage vibe. Equipped with 88 charming rooms, a lavish green courtyard, and two culinary heavyweights –

Café Coco and Delphine Restaurant – Coco Hotel makes the perfect home when you are far away from it.
